Greg Keith is President and Chief Executive Officer of The Keith Corporation (TKC), which was founded by he and his father in 1989. Mr. Keith's 26-year real estate development career has afforded him the experience of developing, leasing and managing 12 million square feet of office, industrial and retail space, which is valued at over $1 billion.

In 1992, Mr. Keith and his father started Kodiak Constructors, Inc., a full-service general construction company specializing in church facilities, commercial, retail, industrial and specialty construction. In 1996, they also founded Keith and Keith Corrections, a correctional facility management company.

Mr. Keith has served as a board member, director or chairman for more than 15 organizations, including the Charlotte Metro YMCA and Wake Forest University's Divinity School, Law School, and Deacon Club Boards. He is also involved in various youth ministries and is an active member, serving in numerous capacities, at Myers Park Presbyterian Church.

He earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business and a Law Degree from Wake Forest University.
